Sub: Relaxation of the Credit limit for Supplementary Semester Examinations of 175 / 200 Credits Scheme during May – June – July 2024

As a one-time measure, Credit limits to register for the Courses with 'N' and 'F' Grades of 175 / 200 Credits Scheme during Supplementary Semester May - June - July 2024 has been relaxed.

As per the special provision,

1) 'F' Grade

The students who have completed upto 8th Semester B.E. and are left with backlogs satisfying the minimum CIE marks are permitted to register directly to Supplementary Semester Examinations for any number of Courses during the Supplementary Semester offered at the end of 8th Semester.

2) 'N' Grade

Students who have completed the courses upto the 8th Semester B.E. and are left with backlogs with 'N' Grade without satisfying the minimum CIE marks (CIE less than 20) and / or attendance less than 75% are permitted to re-register for any number of Courses (i.e. maximum number of Credits relaxed) for Supplementary Semester offered at the end of 8th Semester. These students must re-earn CIE and satisfy the minimum attendance requirement to gain the eligibility to appear for Supplementary Semester Examination.

3) This is subjected to the permitted maximum duration of the program as notified in the Regulations applicable to them and as per University notifications issued from time to time.

For clarifications if any, students are informed to contact Controller of Examinations.
